

Shri. K Syama Raju

President, FHRAI

It is with great pride and joy that I welcome you all to the 55th Annual Convention of the Federation of Hotel & Restaurant Associations of India (FHRAI), being hosted this year in the dynamic city of Bengaluru. As President of both FHRAI and SIHRA, it is a special privilege to bring this prestigious gathering to Karnataka, a state known for its rich heritage, innovation, and hospitality.

This convention is more than just an industry event—it is a forum to exchange knowledge, explore new opportunities, and collectively envision the future of Indian hospitality as we march towards 2047. I am confident that the deliberations, networking, and partnerships formed here will pave the way for sustainable growth, greater resilience, and global recognition for our sector.

I warmly welcome all delegates and wish you a fruitful and memorable convention in Bengaluru.
